

I would like to see the present rules (as of May 30,2003) maintained. Diversity of media ownership is essential to American liberty. It is seriously troubling to think that a few individuals or corportations would have control over information flow and content. Freedom of the press is meaningless without diversity of the press. Consolidation is not in the public interest.